Our Goal and Mission

Adodi Southern Region GOAL is to support and coordinate a network of Adodi's brothers in the southern states which partake in promoting experiential, intellectual, emotional and spiritual growth opportunities for same-gender loving men of African descent.

The MISSION of the Adodi Southern Region is to integrate the Six Principles of Adodi in developing, coordinating, & promoting programs and activities to strengthen the brotherhood of the Adodi Southern Region and but not limited to all communities within the Southern Region; engender strong social awareness, self-empowerment, and provide educational programming for our membership.

Our History

Adodi Southern Region (ASR) began on 7/23/11 during the Silver Anniversary National Summer Retreat of the Men of Adodi in Hamilton, NY when 16 brothers from the South met & formed a fellowship. We represent the expansion of ADODI to 17 Southern states to celebrate our new found energy as southern brothers, the fellowship meets via teleconference on the 2nd Saturday of each month. The first Winter Retreat took place in Dallas on January 13-15, 2012. Every year since then, Winter Retreats take place in various Southern cities. On 7/20/13, two other states were added to the Southern Region.

17 Southern Region States

Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia.

6 Principles of ADODI
